

My Old Timey Baby

by Dan Hicks

A C° A F#
She's a bit old timey, but that's alright with me,

B Bm7 E7 A D7 A D7
She wears a dress of vel_vet that hangs below her knees, her knees

A C° A F#
She's a bit old-fashioned, as all the world can see,

B Bm7 E7 A D7 A D7
The cameo she wears upon her bo__som, puts me in ecstasy, ecstasy,

A C° A F#
She's her own grandmother, that's what they're telling me,

B Bm7 E7 A D7 A D7
But my old timey ba__by is swell enough for me, you see...

E E7 A D7 A D7
She plays her old victrola, the lamp is low, kerosene you know,

E E7 A D7 A D7
We lie upon her bed, the patchwork quilt beneath her head,

E E7 A D7 A D7
Or while her wheel is spinning, she sews some lace or we embrace,

A C° A F#
Or when we go out strokling, the world can plainly see,

B Bm7 E7 A D7 A D7
That my old timey ba__by is swell enough, she's young enough,

A D7 A A6
She's hip enough for me...
